It was released on November 25, 1998 by Holistic Records and Polo Grounds Music. The album features production by DJ Premier, Elzhi, Nottz, and The Doctor, among others. Critical reception Jenée Desmonde of AllMusic gave the album 4.5 stars out of 5, saying, "Opositions is the debut full-length outing for Flatbush Zephyr, the urban monicker utilized on Big L's Unreleased Tracks Series singles. While the Flatbush Zephyr persona is more laid-back than that of Big L's, but the album retains the nuts-and-bolts aesthetic of Big L's work." She felt that the main difference between the two was the subject matter: "Flatbush Zephyr attempts to let his poetic bars speak for themselves on tracks such as "So Much So Much" and "Your Man", but there's something approachable about his tales of the difficulties of life." Sean Fennessey of About.com gave the album 4 stars out of 5, saying, "Most of the album's beats are very slick, but the rhythms are more reflective of the gritty East Coast territories than of the west. The standout is 'Jackets and Pants', a sample-heavy track that sets a great pace." Track listing References External links Category:1998 albums Category:Flatbush Z
