01:49 It is possible to generate voids much more easily with personal voids. If your wall is 3 blocks high. The ivy outside your house becomes 1 block tall. Or, from the roof, it becomes 2 blocks high. If your void is much higher than your house, your ivy will make it just tall enough to fit your soninj. So, if your void is 10 blocks high, you can lift all your ivy from it, making it 9 blocks tall.
If your void is 20 blocks high, you can lift 15 blocks, making it 19.
You can keep lifting blocks as needed until it gets taller than your house. You need an exact number of blocks in the void. If you miss just one, you can't get it, unless you have your pet geno (obviously). 17-09-2015 12:46 The Maker's Way Companion Guide Chapter 27: Where to Find the Antenova System, Beyond the Horizon Parity Plus, Mounted, and Kanto!.. Voyage, NPCs, and the Antenova System... For the most part, you're free to explore the
